MILK BILL APPROVED

Sanitary Measure Accepted by Committee of Experts.

PROVISIONS ARE VERY STRICT

Under the New Milk Measure No Milk, Cream, Ice Cream, or Dairy Products May Be Brought or Sent Into District Unless Produced and Sold Under Sanitary Conditions.

The District milk bill was accepted almost unanimously by the committee of dairymen, scientists, bacteriologists, and physicians, which was appointed by the District Commissioners last year, to formulate laws on the betterment of the conditions of the local milk supply. The committee met in the board room of the District Building at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and approved the bill, which regulates the production and supply of milk in the District. There were but two dissenting votes.

Gen. George M. Sternberg presided at the conference, and Dr. Lloyd H. Magruder, a member of the committee, complimented the work of the committee and its efforts to codify milk laws that will be worthy of adoption as standard laws by the whole country.

Law Is Strict.

The drafted law provides that no milk, cream, ice cream, or other dairy product shall be brought or sent into the District unless it shall be produced and sold under absolutely sanitary conditions, in accordance with a license to be issued by the Health Department; and that no milk or dairy product shall be offered for sale in any manner to deceive the purchaser as to its origin and the sanitary conditions of its production; and that the health officer of the District and his agents shall have power to enforce these provisions, enter into and make a thorough inspection of all places wherein milk, cattle, and vehicles are kept, and also stop all wagons and vehicles of any sort used in the sale and conveyance of dairy products.

Penalties Provided.

The penalty provided for noncompliance with the provisions of the act is a fine which shall not exceed $50 or imprisonment for not more than thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court. All prosecutions are to be instituted in the Police Court upon information approved by the corporation counsel.

John Thomas and George B. Parquhar were the only men who voted against the law. It is said that these men proposed striking out certain clauses.

This was the last meeting of the committee.

WILLS FILED FOR PROBATE.

Late Robert I. King Made Daughter, Mrs. Paton, Chief Beneficiary.

Robert I. King, who died January 13, and who for many years conducted a jewelry store in the southeast, by will dated January 3, 1906, filed yesterday for probate, leaves to his daughter, Mrs. Mary M. Paton, premises No. 211 Fifth street southeast, and all household furniture and silverware.

To a sister, Lucy A. Hunt, he bequeaths the sum of $200. The remainder of the estate is devised to Mrs. Paton and William I. King, a son of the testator. By will dated May 20, 1905, Jane Eliza Bradt, bequeaths $1 each to Florence Bradt Swain, Frank Walton Bradt, and Charles H. Bradt, sr. To Mrs. Swain is also devised $9 for her daughter. To a son, Charles B. Bradt, is left $9 for his daughter.

The remainder of the estate is devised to Edith V. Bradt, Jane Bradt, and Albert M. Bradt, the first named being appointed executrix.

Dr. Mary E. Hartwell, a former clerk in the Pension Bureau, whose will was filed yesterday, directs the sale of thirty acres of land in Montgomery County, Md., and the division of the proceeds among the children of her brother, George W. Hartwell, naming a nephew, Frederick Benjamin, as executor.

BIDS LOW, BUT NOT IN FORM.

Kileen's Offer to Remove Ashes Comes After Other Figures Are In.

George W. Kileen, a Georgetown contractor, has entered a bid for the removal of ashes from apartment houses and residences. He offers to do the work for $95,000, provided the bids for this contract are received.

This offer is $44.05 less than that of the lowest bidder in the former proposals, which were opened in the District Building last Saturday. The offer will not be considered, as it was not filed in accordance with the usual form.

KEMP PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Former Property Clerk Must Answer Three Indictments.

District Attorney Baker Expects to Try Alleged Embezzler in Two Weeks.

J. Arthur Kemp, late property clerk of the police department of the District of Columbia, who was brought from New Orleans on Sunday last, was arraigned in Criminal Court No. 2 yesterday, before Justice Barnard. He pleaded not guilty to three indictments, which charge him with taking approximately $7,500.

Kemp's attorney, Samuel Hayden, after the pleas had been formally entered, reserved the right to withdraw them within ten days and demur to the indictments. The arraignment of Kemp was without incident, and there were but few persons in the courtroom at the time. After the arraignment, Kemp left the courthouse with Mr. Hayden. The former chief clerk is at liberty, under bond of $5,000 furnished by his mother, Mrs. Indiana Kemp. District Attorney Baker yesterday stated that it was probable that Kemp would be called for trial in about two weeks.

STREET SKATING TO GO ON.

Police Say They Cannot Stop Children's Play.

In reply to numerous complaints of children using the sidewalks for roller skating that have been received at police headquarters in the past few days, the police authorities say they are unable to take any action regarding the matter.

Shouting and playing in the streets, in the eyes of the police, do not constitute disorderly conduct, as far as children are concerned. Unless there is something which really constitutes a violation of the law, there is no action the police can take, they say.

A greater portion of the communications are from persons who say that skating on the sidewalk has become so popular they are crowded with children day and night, and that it is becoming dangerous for pedestrians to use the thoroughfares. It has been suggested that certain streets in different sections of the city be set aside for skating. By this arrangement the skaters would be brought together in a few places and thus a number of the complaints would be eliminated. This action, however, would not prevent children from skating where they pleased.

SPEAKS TO THE STUDENTS.

William E. Benson Gives Advice at Howard University To-morrow.

William E. Benson, founder of Kowaliga Institute and the Dixie Improvement Company, will deliver an address before the students of Howard University to-morrow at 4:30 o'clock in Memorial Chapel.

About ten years ago Mr. Benson, who had been graduated from Howard University, went into the heart of Alabama, far from human habitations and sixteen miles from a railroad, and founded the Kowaliga Institute, which has grown until now thirteen teachers are required to instruct its pupils.

After the institute was firmly established Mr. Benson organized the Dixie Improvement Company for the purpose of putting his theory that "the people of his race must get next to the soil for their moral and financial improvement" to a practical test. This company now is in control of 2,000 acres, and more than 200 colored persons own small farms, which they purchased by easy payments.

RULINGS ON ALIMONY.

Two Men Ordered to Pay and One Delinquent to Be Arrested.

Chief Justice Claiborne yesterday ordered John C. King, whose wife, Mrs. Catherine King, is suing him for divorce, to pay to her $5 per week alimony pending the determination of the suit.

He also ordered John M. Lederer, whose wife, Mrs. Amelia Lederer, is suing for a divorce, to pay her a like amount. Justice Gould directed the deputy marshal to take into custody Flory Maglen, who instituted suit for divorce from his wife, Mrs. Josephine Maglen, and to hold him until he complies with an order of the court, which directed him to pay to his wife $5 per week alimony.

Wisconsin Club Election.

The following officers were elected at a reorganization meeting of the Wisconsin Republican Club held in Pythian Temple last evening: President, Dr. A. E. Cowles, Madison, of the Government Printing Office; first vice president, J. C. McEltry, La Crosse, of the Pension Office; second vice president, Mr. Frear, Hudson, of the Pension Office; secretary, L. H. Burton, Madison, of the Government Printing Office; treasurer, W. M. Thomas, Green Bay, of the Post-office Department. L. H. Burton, Philip Butler, and Charles Becker were elected representatives to the State League of Republican Clubs of the District of Columbia.

Miss Madre to Get $3,000.

A jury in Circuit Court No. 1 yesterday awarded Miss Marie Madre the sum of $3,000 from the Norwich Union Insurance Company, whose home office is in Norwich, England, for a fire loss at her home in Madre Park northeast, which the company had declined to pay.

INJUNCTION CASE TAKEN UP

United Textile Workers Make Report on the Barring of Nonunionists—Fifth Day's Session of Labor Body Attended by all Members Except Vice President Mitchell.

The executive council of the American Federation of Labor opened its fifth day's session at headquarters yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, all members being present except Vice President Mitchell.

The questions of rival jurisdiction between the Carriage and Wagon Workers and the Upholsterers' International unions were heard by the executive council, and directions given that John H. Brinkman, of this city, and James H. Hatch, of New York City, representing these organizations, hold a conference and submit their report in writing during the course of the day as to the agreement reached.

Not Permitted to Speak.

President Golden, of the United Textile Workers of America, submitted the case of the injunction issued against the silk workers of New Jersey, in which the organization and the members are restrained from speaking to the strike-breakers, or persuading them in any way or contributing any money toward paying their expenses for leaving town.

D. W. Ottinger, president of the Stone Mounters' International Union, presented the case of the members of that organization engaged in a dispute with the Defense Association of Employers. The council decided that a general circular shall be issued to city central bodies and State federations of labor notifying them that all seceding or dual organizations must, in accordance with the law, be denied representation in these bodies.

In the case of the controversy in the papermaking industry held in the earlier part of the week, the following decision was reached:

"We find that the decision heretofore rendered by the convention of the American Federation of Labor, and by this executive council, have jurisdiction to the Paper Makers' Union of all employees in paper mills, thereby providing for only one organization in the paper business."

Separate Local Unions.

"The executive council also decides that separate local unions for paper makers and pulp and sulphite workers shall be allowed, where a sufficient number are employed, that all members pay the same dues, and have equal voting power in the general organization, and shall be entitled equally to all rights, privileges, and benefits of the general union."

"The executive council decides as to the special case in the Great Northern Paper Company's mills, that the present memorandum for contract shall remain in force and effect until July 1, 1908, and that until that time the division of jurisdiction between the two unions to be continued as it now exists in said Great Northern Paper Company's mills."

The case of the brewery workers, engineers, firemen, and teamsters, was considered, and a decision reached, one of the features requiring that the representatives of the organizations in interest again meet, confer, and endeavor to reach a point of agreement.

TO REST IN MOUNT OLIVET.

Obsequies for Miss Johanna Sullivan to Be Held Monday.

The funeral of Miss Johanna Sullivan, for a number of years an employee of the Government Printing Office, who was suddenly stricken with heart failure, yesterday noon, will take place Monday morning, with high requiem mass, at St. Patrick's Church, Tenth and G streets northwest. The interment will be at Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Miss Sullivan collapsed yesterday, when about to step from the curb at First and H streets northwest, while she was returning from her lunch. She was taken into the pharmacy of S. M. Wagner, 35 H street northwest, but died before medical assistance could reach her.

Thomas J. Sullivan, director of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, brother of the deceased woman, was notified of the death of Miss Sullivan, and took charge of the removal of the body to an undertaking establishment.

Miss Sullivan was sixty-five years old, and had been connected with the Government Printing Office for a number of years. For some time she had resided alone, with the exception of a housekeeper, at 95 Third street northwest.

Miss Sullivan had always enjoyed, apparently, the best of health.
